

Status of Preschool Special Education (IDEA Part B 619) State Data Systems

Thursday, March 19, 2015 3:00 – 4:30 p.m. EST

3:00 – 3:05 PM	Welcome Review of Webinar Features and Agenda	Dr. Deborah Mazzeo, Research Associate, RMC Research Corporation
3:05 – 3:10 PM	Overview of the Center for IDEA Early Childhood Data Systems Participants will be introduced to the Center's goals and activities.	Ms. Martha Diefendorf, Associate Director at The Center for IDEA Early Childhood Data Systems (DaSy)
		Frank Porter Graham (FPG) Child Development Institute
		University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
3:10 – 3:30 PM	Findings of the report, IDEA Part C and Part B 619 State Data Systems: Current Status and Future Priorities  Major findings related to states' use of unique identifiers, as well as early childhood special education data linkages with K-12 data and workforce data will be shared with participants.	Ms. Martha Diefendorf
3:30-3:40 PM	States' Use of Unique Identifiers  The different types of unique identifiers, including how and why they are used and the pros and cons to each will be discussed.	Mr. Jeff Sellers, Sr. Program Manager, AEM Corporation

3:40-4:10 PM	State Sharing Participants will have the opportunity to hear directly from state Part C and Part B 619 staff and/or representatives who will present various perspectives and discuss some of their key challenges.	Discussaires.
		Ms. Stephanie O'Day, Connecticut State Department of Education, Data Manager
		Ms. Maria Synodi, Connecticut State Department of Education, 61 Coordinator
		Ms. Mary Corey, Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, Data Manager
		Ms. Pam Williams, Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, 619 Coordinator
4:10–4:25 PM	Question and Answer Session Participants will then be encouraged to ask questions during this time.	Ms. Martha Diefendorf, Mr. Jeff Sellers, & Discussants
4:25-4:30 PM	REL Stakeholder Feedback Survey Adjourn	Dr. Deborah Mazzeo

Discussants: